GlenArbor Golf Club

Dear Friends,

Whether you are an avid golfer, a beginner, or would like to experience a five star golf club; we invite you to participate in the New York Urban League's 8th Annual Golf Classic. We are proud to announce the event will be held Monday, September 21, 2009, at the prestigious GlenArbor Golf Club in Bedford Hills, New York.

Proceeds from the Golf Classic will be used to support the educational and employment programs of the Urban League during our historic 90th Anniversary year. The New York Urban League is committed to providing access and training for jobs and support and guidance so that young people can succeed in school and go on to higher education.

So please join us and enjoy luxurious golf amenities while supporting a historic institution committed to empowering families and strengthening communities.

The classic will conclude with the 19th Hole Cocktail Reception and Awards Dinner. Each golfer will receive a gift package and special awards will be given to the winners of exciting contests throughout the day's play.

New this year, beginners will have an opportunity to participate in a golf clinic at GlenArbor's PGA quality learning facility.

Enclosed you will find information regarding various partnership opportunities. For additional information, please contact Angie Hancock at 212 933 0964. Please respond by August 22 to ensure your participation, space is limited.

We hope to see you on the green!
